Fearsome Love

Fearsome love

By: Jessica Johnson

Angles sent from heaven above,

none expected to fall in love,

but that is what I've done.

And it's too late I've found the one.

Others may try to interfere,

but I'll always love you my dear.

No matter what the price to pay,

I wont listen to what they say.

I try with all my might,

to make our love last the fight.

when i feel really down,

I know it's him I'll see around,

to save him from all worlds down,

he keeps me out of a gloom.

I can't believe he's really mine,

and with that I am fine.
